

MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS

The lawyers of Williams & Connolly LLP have represented both buyers and sellers in business combinations and asset transfers of all types and sizes. These include negotiated acquisitions of public and privately-held companies engaged in all areas of business, including entertainment, lodging, banking and thrift, sports teams and sports management, food services, travel, real estate brokerage and property management, medical equipment, remote sensing technology, manufacturing, gaming, media, and transportation. The firm has also represented clients in hostile acquisitions, such as tender offers and proxy contests.
