

GILBERT GREENMAN, PARTNER

Gil Greenman has represented clients in a wide range of cases in federal and state courts, arbitrations, and administrative hearings.

In recent years, Mr. Greenman has defended several Fortune 500 corporations in federal criminal investigations and leading law firms against a variety of federal and state claims. Previously, he assisted in the successful representation of President Clinton in the Department of Justice's 1997 inquiry into alleged violations of the Pendleton Act and at the 1999 impeachment proceedings in the Senate.

After graduating with high honors from Harvard Law School in 1994, Mr. Greenman clerked for David A. Ezra of the U.S. District Court for the District of Honolulu and in Seattle for Judge Robert R. Beezer of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. He joined Williams & Connolly LLP in 1996 and has been a partner since 2003.

Mr. Greenman writes and speaks on the topic of electronic document discovery and is a member of the Advisory Board of the Advanced E-Discovery Institute of Georgetown University Law Center.
