

Associates Tanya Abrams and Barrett Anderson Selected to Participate in 2016 Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) Pathfinder Program

December 2016

Williams & Connolly selected associates Tanya Abrams and Barrett Anderson to participate in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) Pathfinder Program for 2016. Tanya and Barrett participated in conferences in Indianapolis and Dallas over the course of the program this year.

The LCLD Pathfinder Program is designed for diverse, high-potential, early-career attorneys at LCLD Member organizations. The mission of the program is to provide Pathfinders with practical tools for developing and leveraging professional networks through relationship-building skills, foundational leadership skills, and an understanding of career development strategies applicable to both in-house and law firm practice. The firm has been a member of LCLD since 2015.
