CPR Recognizes John Buckley's Leadership in Rule Revision

March 2019

Effective March 1, 2019, The International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (CPR) has issued revised rules for administered arbitration of domestic and international disputes. Williams & Connolly senior counsel John Buckley served as co-chair of CPR’s rules revision committee. CPR’s press release cites John’s contribution and his comments on the revised rules.

Click here to read CPR's press release.