

Products Liability & Mass Torts Practice Group Named Nationwide Leader by Chambers USA

May 2020

Chambers USA recognized Williams & Connolly among the top law firms in the nation for “Products Liability & Mass Torts.” The publication performs in-depth client focused research and is read by industry-leading companies and organizations worldwide.

As noted by Chambers USA, one client reported: “Williams & Connolly ranks very highly in talent, resources and strategy. They’ll say it exactly how it is.” Another client praised the firm’s “outstanding strategic judgment in a national counsel role - they work very well with other firms.”

In products liability litigation, we represent pharmaceutical and medical device makers and distributors in all aspects of national and international litigation as: (a) lead trial counsel, (b) national or global coordinating counsel, (c) resolution counsel, and (d) appellate counsel. We have also handled litigation involving many other types of products, including consumer products, children’s products, industrial equipment, farm equipment, utility-grade electrical equipment, and aviation-related products liability claims, to name a few.
