

Williams & Connolly “Highly Recommended” By Benchmark Litigation

October 2016

For the sixth consecutive year, Williams & Connolly has been recognized as a “Highly Recommended” firm in Washington, D.C. by Benchmark Litigation, a guide to the leading litigation law firms and attorneys in the U.S. In the 2017 edition, a local peer is quoted stating that the firm “presents with a very understated style, but make no mistake about it: when it comes to trial work, they kind of own this town.”

The publication also consistently ranks Williams & Connolly among the top tier firms nationwide for appellate, general commercial litigation, product liability, and white collar crime.

In addition to the firm wide rankings, several Williams & Connolly attorneys have been recognized within selected practice areas. Click here to view the list.
