

Privilege and Ethics in Cross-Border Litigation

May 2020

Partner Ana Reyes and associate Matthew Heins have coauthored the article “Privilege and Ethics in Cross-Border Litigation,” which was published in this month’s International Bar Association – International Litigation News publication. The article highlights the ways that rapid advances in digital communication have expanded the need to consider questions of privilege and ethics in cross-border representations.

Click here to read the article.